To Admit U. S. Horses.

London, June 29.—At the meeting of the English Jockey Club today, the stewards moved for the withdrawal of the rule adopted on June 1, 1909, which experience has shown to be ineffective. The rule is as follows: "No weight shall be allotted to any horse in a handicap until he has run three times in the United Kingdom."

This rule went into effect following the passage of the Agnew-Hart law prohibiting organized bookmaking in New York, following which some of the best American horses were sent to race in England.

 IN THE SOCIAL WORLD *****

The wedding of Mr. Will Artley and Miss Eva Nelson will occur tonight at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Col. and Mrs. J. M. Nelson, on north Main street. It will be an event of interest in Roswell social circles, and the affair is being elaborately prepared for. Elder C. C. Hill will officiate.

Mrs. C. E. Mason entertained at her home on North Richardson avenue yesterday afternoon, complimentary to her guest, Mrs. C. F. Wheeler, of St. Louis, who leaves tomorrow for her home. The afternoon was pleasantly spent socially and was concluded with the serving of appropriate refreshments.

Miss Grace Neathery, of Farmersville, Texas, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Waitman, of northeast of town, Miss Ruth Crutcher and Messrs. Will Lawrence and Oland Allison, composed an auto party to Lake Arthur and Hagerman, that was chaperoned by Mrs. Farquhar, from which they have just returned. At Hagerman they attended a house party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reynolds and at Lake Arthur were entertained at the Lawrence ranch.

Mrs. F. P. Fisher gave a children's lawn party at her home on north Richardson avenue last evening in honor of Miss Grace Brennenman, who celebrated the thirteenth anniversary of her birthday yesterday. The lawn was artistically and profusely decorated and illuminated with Japanese lanterns and all arrangements were made for a good time. Many games were played by the children, one being a contest in which the children fed berries to a Teddy Bear. In this game the little guest of honor won the prize, a toy donkey. Music was furnished throughout the evening by a string orchestra and late in the evening nice refreshments were served. The guests were Joe Finley, Leona Davis, Grace Brennenman, Ida Radney, Ellen Thompson, Vera Blackwood, Robbie Booth, Edith Davis, Howard Booth, Charles Goodwin, Allie Thompson, John Skipwith and Everson Davis. The little guest of honor received many pretty presents as reminders of the party.

Mrs. D. L. Geyer entertained the Fancypack Club yesterday afternoon. There was a full attendance of the membership, with several guests additional. The afternoon was spent socially and nice refreshments were served.

Tuesday was the birthday of Jack and Josale Rockafellow, the former being 11 and the latter 12 years old. They were given a luncheon on the lawn at their home on North Missouri avenue, only a small party of friends being invited.

The C. I. C. gave an ice cream social at the Christian church yesterday afternoon and last night. It was well attended and all who were present had a jolly good time. The class made a goodly sum for their treasury, also, the affair being a success financially as well as socially.

JEFFRIES SPENDS TIME DOING BOXING STUNTS.

Reno, Nev., June 29.—Yielding to the entreaties of his counselors and friends, Jeffries called off his boycott on boxing today and has agreed to get into action this afternoon for the special edification of Governor Dickerson, who has delayed his return to the state capital to watch the big fellow work out.

Jim Corbett and his unruly charge will therefore box between four and five this afternoon, although just how many rounds nobody knows.

The governor greatly enjoyed seeing Johnson yesterday. "The work of the negro was a revelation," said the governor this morning. "I never knew a man of Johnson's size could be so wonderfully clever in defending himself. When I complimented him on his ability as a boxer, he said: 'Mr. Governor, I would like to box with you some time to show you how easy it is.' I promptly assured him that if we were ever matched by some designing person the match would be officially declared off at once."

Apparently Jeffries' grouch has disappeared. This morning he frisked around with his dogs and finally started on a six mile walk. Jeffries' work tomorrow will probably be the last of the long training siege. Then the "drying out" process begins.

Johnson did not box this morning but put in nine miles on the road at a pace which tested the endurance of his trainers to the utmost.

Chicago, June 29.—Lou Houseman, the former sporting writer, announced today that he had ten thousand dollars to bet at one to ten that Johnson would not answer the call of "time" for the seventh round of the big fight.

Victoria, B. C., June 29.—The arrivals from Australia, which yesterday included Bob Fitzsimmons, Tommy Burns and Bill Lang, bring the news that Jack Johnson is the favorite among the Australian fight followers. They say the betting odds are six to five in favor of the black champion.

INSTITUTE WILL PROBABLY GO TO HAGERMAN.

The Chaves County Teachers' Institute will officially close its annual session tomorrow morning, when the final business meeting will be held. The examinations will occupy Friday, the last day of the institute, however. There is a move on foot to carry the next institute to Hagerman, instead of locating it at Roswell; and the question is one of great interest to all concerned. It has never been held anywhere but the county seat.

Since the new territorial law provides that the city teachers, being under constant supervision and having institute work all through the school year, do not have to attend the county session, it follows, naturally, that Roswell has no greater claim on the annual meeting than any other town in the county; not as much, in fact so far as attendance is concerned. Roswell's only claim on the meeting is its central location and the fact that it is the county seat and the largest town in the county. But beside all this is a more potent reason for going to Hagerman at this time. The teachers do not feel that they have received the proper consideration at this session. The people of Roswell apparently have not known they were in town, they complain, and they want to show them that they cannot be so indifferent with impunity. Even the newspapers have been slothful in noticing the doings of the body. All these things have brought on a movement to carry the next annual meeting out of the county seat. It will be determined at tomorrow morning's business session; and it may develop a pretty contest, for the teachers who now have to come from the north end of the county will naturally be opposed to going to the south end for institute, regardless of other incentives.

Roswell's position in the matter should be to promise more attention next time, hot weather notwithstanding; for the teachers' institute is a body that holds the future of the county in its hand, and should not be overlooked. And when the people do more for the teachers; and when there are more features attracting outside attention, it will follow "as night the day" that the newspapers will come up strong with their support. However, this is intended as no defense of any laxity the Record has shown in reporting this institute.

Supt. and Mrs. C. C. Hill entertained the teachers of the Chaves County Teachers' Institute last evening at their home at 604 North Kentucky avenue. More than sixty teachers were present and a general good time was had by everybody. An impromptu program, consisting of music, recitations, etc., was carried out. The following young ladies gave readings: Misses Ethel M. Stetson, Pauline Shelley, Fern McGarahan and Olive Hadder. Misses Orpha Beck and Leila Beck added much to the pleasure of the evening by rendering selections on the piano and violin. Nice refreshments of ice cream and cakes were served.

Don't forget the free lecture of Dr. D. B. Simpson, at the Presbyterian church, on Thursday evening. Subject, "Laugh and Grow Fat." Everybody invited.

The total enrollment at the teachers' institute has reached 67, which without the Roswell city teachers included, is the largest in the history of the county.

PREPARING FOR THE YALE-HARVARD BOAT RACE.

New London, June 29.—As indicated by the reservations at hotels and boarding houses, tomorrow will be the greatest day in the history of this old Connecticut town. Already the city is living up in anticipation of tomorrow's battle of oars between the blue crews of Yale and the Crimson rowers from Harvard. The streets are gay with flags and bunting of crimson and blue and the place has taken on an air of life and activity customary to the occasion. Every train is bringing its quota of enthusiasts. The influx tomorrow morning is expected to be in excess of anything ever known at a New London regatta, and it is predicted that the largest crowd that ever witnessed a rowing event in America will see the rival crews struggle for honors.

The final practice of the two crews who are to battle for supremacy in the big race took place today and was witnessed by an immense crowd that lined the river banks desirous of forming their final judgment as to the respective merits and condition of the contestants.
